

Noelle D'Intino

Owner and Executive Director

Education: Graduate of North Attleboro High School and Worcester State College with her Bachelors in Speech and Language Pathology.

Work Experience: Noelle worked for a financial institution for 12 years in various positions within the Corporate Bank, her last position was a Manager of Business Administration in the Capital Markets group. Throughout her career in financial services she was responsible for various duties including Client Services, Marketing & Communications, Human Resources, Finance, Event Planning, Compliance and Disaster Recovery.

Other: Noelle serves on the Board of Directors of the North Attleboro - Plainville Chamber of Commerce and is involved in several networking organizations. Noelle is also the co-founder of Better Your Business, a consulting partnership working to energize and strategize a winning businesses.

For Fun: When Noelle is not at the Center she enjoys spending time with her husband and daughter, reading, and for fun she also runs a Mary Kay business.